More about the picture

On august 9th 2020 due to heavy rain most of the Sothern areas of kottayam district was under water .and the MC road at nagambadam is very close to flooded river meenachilaar and water is so fastly rushing to this area ,and it is very difficult for any one to walk across , there this eighty year old woman Sumathi ,who was helplessly standing like a wet chicken shivering and afraid to enter the rushing water as her home was fully covered by flood and searching for a safe place got stuck before the flooded road and there Fr Joby helped her by lifting her like a child and walked though the rushing water about hundred meter to a safe area
